Farmer to Families

Farmer to Families Food Box Program is a WIN-WIN!

With over one million boxes delivered according to Secretary of Agriculture Sonny Perdue¹ the USDA announced a third round of distribution will now proceed with the Farmers to Families Food Box Program! Each box contains dairy products and fluid milk in addition to other nutritious items!

This successful program is helping keep kids and their families from being hungry during these challenging times. It also gives dairy farmers an income to help them survive.
